What NOT to Buy at a Yard Sale

The U.S. Consumer Protection Agency has highly recommended that you do not buy certain items at yard sales. Below is a partial list. This gives you a general idea of what not to buy and to get you thinking about potential hazardous yard sale purchases.

Old baby cribs. They often don't have the proper spacing in the slats and/or could have cracked or have peeling paint.

Soft bedding for babies. It is believed that plush products like soft mattresses, comforters, pillows can cause SIDS. Basically, ANYTHING baby-related should be bought with extreme caution. A perfect looking car seat (which
